Stingers defeat Yeomen in CIAU cage first round

The Concordia University Varsity men's basketball team will compete in their third consecutive Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union championships this weekend in Victoria, British Columbia.

The Stingers will meet York University in the opening round on Thursday night. The fourth ranked Stingers dropped a 75-74 decision to York earlier in the year.

Doug Daigneault's cagers captured the Quebec University Athletic Association regular season crown with a 9-3 record, then trounced Bishop's University 86-56 in the playoff final. The Stingers displayed one of their best second-half surges as they won 10 of the last 13 games.

Gary McKeigan was again the dominant player for Concordia as he averaged over 20 points and 7 rebounds for Concordia, en route to being named to the Q.U.A.A. All-Star team for the third consecutive season. John Gissendanner, who joined the Stingers after Christmas averaged 14 points and 8 rebounds a game, combining with McKeigan to provide one of the top 1-2 combinations in Canada.

VICTORIA (CP) — Concordia Stingers of Montreal sank three foul shots in the last 17 seconds to defeat York Yeomen of Toronto 65-62 yesterday in the opening game of the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union basketball championships.

In the second game played yesterday, the No. 3-ranked Brandon Bobcats, the Great Plains champion, trounced Ontario West Windsor Lancers, 100-86.

Centre John Gissendanner of Concordia broke a 62-62 tie with his foul shot at 39:43, but missed the second shot. York took a time out, but the Yeomen missed their final field goal attempt.

Forward Gary McKeigan of Concordia was fouled at the final buzzer and sank two more free throws for the three-point margin.

The Stingers led 30-27 at the half and got a strong game in the middle from Gissendanner, who had 21 points, 14 rebounds and blocked four shots.

Guard Rodney Geanty added 14 points for the Stingers and led all rebounders with 17. McKeigan also scored 14 points for Concordia.

Guard Dave Coulthard of York, who averaged 30 points during the season, had 19 points for the Yeomen after hitting on just one of seven shots in the opening half.

Both teams shot 44 per cent from the field and Concordia had a 41-35 edge in rebounds. The Stingers also turned the ball over 17 times, compared with 11 giveaways by York.

Centre Will Marshall scored 22 points as Brandon's powerful front line wore down Windsor.

Jude Kelly chipped in with 18 points, while Keith Wilder and Cheddie Warner had 16 each for the Bobcats, who shot an impressive 56 per cent from the field.

Brandon led 49-31 at the half and the Bobcats were never threatened during the final 20 minutes by the Lancers, who relied mainly on centre Stan Korosec.

The championship game itself will be played tomorrow at 3 p.m. EST and will be televised live on CTV.

Growth, confidence, maturity, discipline. No, this is not the secret formula for a happy marriage, but instead are the main components which have produced a championship-contending football team.

Stingers whip Marauders

In exhibition intercollegiate football action Saturday, the Concordia Stingers, expected to be the most improved team this season, whipped the visiting McMaster Marauders 27-17.

Dan Pavilick caught two touchdown passes from quarterback Colin Anderson as coach Skip Rochette's Stingers erupted for 15 points in the fourth quarter.

Anderson, in his second year at Concordia and formerly with the defunct Verdun Maple Leafs, ignited the Stingers' offence to 297 yards.

By RON WILLIAMS

For the second straight week, the Concordia Stingers have come up winners by practising what they preach; a well-balanced offensive attack, tough defense, and disciplined football. The victims this week were the once mighty Ottawa Gee-Gees, who limped away from Loyola on the short end of a 49-10 pasting.

To the casual observer, who thought Concordia's initial win over Queen's was a shock, this might be considered as nothing short of a miracle. But the pleasantly surprising Stingers will disagree.

Stingers' foul shooting, defense kept McGill outside looking in

By MARC PAQUIN

Janet Hylland sank seven of eight free throws down the stretch and Joann Bourque turned in a gutsy performance to propel the Concordia Stingers to a 57-51 victory over the McGill Martlets Tuesday night at McGill.

The win enabled the Stingers to move up to second place in the QUAA with a record of 10-4. McGill, meanwhile, has climbed into the third spot following a fourth setback in its encounters.

Although Concordia's women's basketball team flew the flag last week, beating all comers to take the gold ring at the Ottawa Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Concordia women's basketball conquers Ottawa tournament

By MICHAEL BOUCHER

Concordia's women's basketball team flew the flag last week, beating all comers to take the gold ring at the Ottawa Invitational Basketball Tournament.

In doing so the Stingers also supplied two players to the tournament's all-star team, placing guards Janet Hylland and Joann Bourque on this exulted squad.

The weekend's grand final pitted QUAA cross-river rivals, Les Patriotes de Trois Rivières, against Concordia Stingers.

Despite having three starters, Concordia's Carolyn Marriott

fense forced the Martlets to shoot from outside throughout the game.

"What we wanted to do was stop the Martlets from taking and let them shoot outside," said coach Mike Hickey.

The 1981 edition of the Concordia Classic promises to have the most competitive field in the most complete 10 year history of the tournament with eight outstanding university teams vying for the coveted championship. The Women's Basketball Classic will once again be a showcase of talent when it gets underway on Thursday, November 19, for three days.

Although neither game was a classic, history will show only the final scores. Both men and women cagers emerged triumphant last Friday from a long and grueling voyage to Trois Rivières.

The women opened the twin bill with a 60-56 victory over les Patriotes. Sue Bates was a sur-

Hylland finished up the night with 14 points, going 12 for 16 from the foul line, and pulled down seven rebounds. Hylland's numerous assists were equally important as well as her ability to bring the ball up the floor and handle the McGill press.

Marriott and Beth Mansfield were the other top Stinger point guards with 10 and nine points respectively. Karen Diaz led all scorers with 12 points. Concordia's (5th) and U.N.B. (3rd) place finishers in the CIAU, U.N.B. (3rd) and Laurentian (6th). Add to the likes of the vastly improved McGill squad, and three strong teams in St. (N.Y.), D.

Two plays later Bourque and her teammates were ahead to stay and third place was theirs.

Beth Mansfield hit one more for Concordia from the penalty stripe with :06 showing on the clock to round out her team's scoring at 53.

"It's the best basketball we've played in years," said coach Mike Hickey. "But we still have a long way to go, especially on offense."

University of Regina Cougars were up for Friday afternoon's game against Concordia Stingers here, optimistic that they could prove their number one ranking was true and eager to open play in the 1982 Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union hockey championship tournament on the right foot. Things went great for the Cougars — for 20 minutes and 36 seconds. Then, the Stingers broke a close 3-3 game wide open with three straight goals and the top-ranked Cougars were the victims of the first major upset in the tournament as Stingers held on for a 6-5 knockout.

Bright beginnings for men's soccer

By TONY DOBROWOLSKI

The Concordia men's soccer team is still polishing the rough edges of its 1981 model. The Stingers opened the season on Friday with a ragged 2-0 shutout off Bishop's; but on Sunday an improved team effort and a three-goal performance by rookie Dennis Kavaratzis paced the Stingers' over Laval, 4-1. Both matches were held at Loyola Field.

peppering Bishop's goalie Anthony Crowe with a volley of shots from all angles. Crowe, the first half, was a one man team holding back the hungry Concordia shooters. He made a fine save when he stopped a bouncing header by Costas Karakatsanis; and a few minutes later robbed Karakatsanis again by knocking away a hard shot that was tailing away from him.

Karakatsanis got even when he yielded a direct kick from Ron Luffner and booted it in for the first goal of the game. The ball bounced in front of the net, under Crowe's arms, "where I should have been," he said, and into the net.

Bishops played better in the second half as the Stinger fullbacks, tentative at first, gave up ground but stopped the Gaitors when necessary. They had a

Stingers No. 1 in CIAU ranking

OTTAWA (CP) — Concordia Stingers are living by Darwin's theory of the survival of the fittest as the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union soccer season reached the midpoint in a confusing year.

Although the Stingers did not play last week, they moved to the top of the national ranking as most teams took time knocking superb night to delight the large crowd in Kitchener.

Waterloo appeared headed for the top spot after a 4-1 win at Toronto but stumbled against York, settling for a 1-1 draw that left Waterloo second in the ranking.

St. Mary's Huskies continued to surprise in the East, beating

Columbia, in first place in the West, is fifth in the top 10 after a 2-2 draw with Calgary in its only match of the week.

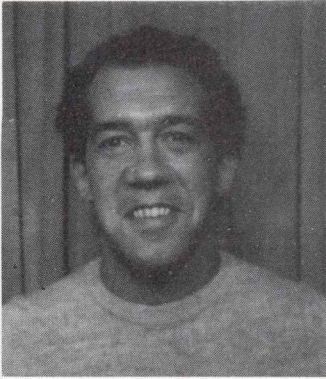

Another battle is shaping up in Ontario, where nearly every team still has a shot at the title. McMaster and Laurentian failed to settle much when they played a 1-1 tie last week, leaving McMaster sixth and Laurentian

Mike and Pat Sullivan, Concordia wrestlers, represented Canada in the Junior Pan-Am Championships in Venezuela last week and both came home with gold medals.

Mike Sullivan, 19, 125 lbs, is a first year Exercise Science student and a determined wrestler. "I was very proud to represent Canada at the Junior Pan-Am Championships," explained Mike.

Pat Sullivan, 19, 136 lbs, is also an Exercise Science student. He enjoys wrestling and is quite competitive.

Another Concordia student, or ex-Concordia student, on the wrestling team is Clark Davis.

Davis, 24, 198 lbs, went to the Senior World Championships in Yugoslavia in late August, and was ranked fifth in the world. When he returned late for

One hundred and forty-four wrestlers, from the United States and Canada, met at the Guelph Open this past weekend where Concordia and Quebec wrestlers won one gold and two bronze medals.

Concordia's Clark Davis 24, 199 lbs, fighting in the 220 lbs weight class proved to be as powerful as he is unbeatable, as he won the team's only gold medal.

In his first bout, Davis easily beat Jim Coody from an Ontario club only 18 seconds into the second round by a score of 13 to 0.

A wrestling bout consists of two rounds of three minutes each. A fight ends when one wrestler has his opponent on his back for a 12 his bout against Lou of Guelph University was more difficult than his first but he was still able to control the fight to a 7-1 victory.

Davis qualified for a gold medal bout against Lou Diserfino of the New York Athletics Club (NYAC) and dominated his opponent 15 to 2 securing the gold. Although most opponents outweighed Davis, weight does not a better wrestler make.

"There were not many outstanding wrestlers in my weight class" admits Davis, "but those mooses sure tire me out."

Concordia's Mike Sullivan 19, 126 lbs, won three bouts and lost one which qualified him for third place. He won the bout by defeat-

Clark Davis accepts his gold medal at the Guelph Open wrestling tournament this past weekend. Davis beat three opponents in-a-row which entitled him to a gold.

LENNOXVILLE— They are lean and mean, they are the big maroon machine.

The Concordia women's hockey team ground out a 7-0 white-washing of Bishop's/Champlain Polar Bears Friday night with a scary mechanical.

The game was a secutive shutout who have three opponents. Concordia's domination was so complete they managed the shutout despite bringing along only two defense players. Offensively the Stingers were led by Corinne Corcoran's two goals and three assists and a pair of goals by Kathleen Casey.

Schenley O.F.C.: the only 8-Year Old that's guaranteed right on the back of the bottle.

Canadian law requires distillers to place a stamp on their whisky bottles showing the year the whisky was distilled.

With Schenley O.F.C., we go a lot further. We certify that our whisky has been aged in charred white oak casks, for a full 8 years.

We believe 8 years is a perfect aging time for whisky. When it reaches its prime for a smooth, mellow taste.
